Faculty

Our training staff and instructors come from all over the world with unsurpassed years of combined expertise, experience, a profound respect for safety in the workplace, and a real passion to make your training experience a "career enhancing" one. Our Camp Lejeune team welcomes you.

BRANDON RICHARDSON, TRAINING SUPERVISOR

Brandon joined TEAM ARI after completing the ARI course at our main campus in Tehachapi, CA in August 2017 and was excited to bring his experience to our Camp Lejeune Skill Bridge Program. Brandon was born and raised in southeast Texas and joined the Marine Corps at age 20. The first 5 years of enlistment he served as an avionics technician and upon re-entering active duty, he served as a supply administration clerk. After 9 years of service, Brandon was discharged and attended college. He was awarded an Associates of Science degree specializing in Electronics Engineering Technology. Brandon has had many teaching rolls throughout his military and civilian career and has a true passion for it. He has a special dedication for helping fellow service members transition out of service easier and more fluid.

MICHAEL WILLIAMS, TRAINING SPECIALIST

Michael joined TEAM ARI in September 2017 as a training specialist helping to launch our Fort Irwin CSP bringing that experience to our newest Skill Bridge Program at Camp Lejeune. Michael served in the USMC as a heavy equipment mechanic and safety/hazmat NCOIC. After his transition, Michael attended the Airstreams Renewables, Inc. program at its Tehachapi campus. Upon graduation, he went on to work for RES/System 3 as a tower wiring technician, using the skills he gained with ARI. As an instructor, he is committed to helping others.

BRADLY WAGNER, TRAINING SPECIALIST

Brad served for 23 years in the US Army as a Field Artillery Cannon Crewmember. He worked in all facets of artillery, from Gunner to Battery First Sergeant. While transitioning out of the Army, Brad attended ARI at Ft. Bliss. He accepted an offer with GE/LM Windpower as a Traveling Field Composite Technician, where his climb/rescue training and basic knowledge of wind turbine technology gave him an edge as a new hire. Brad worked two years in the field when the opportunity to join Team ARI Lejeune as an instructor presented itself. Brad jumped at the chance to join Team ARI Lejeune to help transitioning service members see the value in ARI's training and employment opportunities when transferring from active duty to civilian life. Brad is from Maryland, is married and has two children.
