Bradly Wagner, TRAINING SUPERVISOR

Brad served for 23 years in the US Army as a Field Artillery Cannon Crewmember. He worked in all facets of artillery, from Gunner to Battery First Sergeant. While transitioning out of the Army, Brad attended ARI at Ft. Bliss. He accepted an offer with GE/LM Wind power as a Traveling Field Composite Technician, where his climb/rescue training and basic knowledge of wind turbine technology gave him an edge as a new hire. Brad worked for two years in the field when the opportunity to join Team ARI Lejeune as an instructor presented itself. Brad jumped at the chance to join Team ARI Lejeune to help transitioning service members see the value in ARI's training and employment opportunities when transferring from active duty to civilian life. Brad has recently transitioned to the role of training supervisor at Ft Carson. Brad is originally from Maryland and has two children.
