KELLY DEAN, TRAINING SPECIALIST

Kelly enlisted into the Army in 2014 and was stationed at Fort Bragg, North Carolina for 5 years. After that he decided to move to Fort Cavazos to put down roots for his family. After 3 years at Fort Cavazos, he attended an Airstreams class at the Fort Cavazos campus to find a career path after the Army. Kelly was the Honor Graduate of his class and moved into the telecom industry upon graduation. He quickly worked up to a Top Hand position and continued to teach and mentor new employees and climbers. Now at Airstreams Kelly continues to influence and teach people about the industry. Kelly is currently in the Texas National Guard and is pursuing a Bachelor's in Environmental Science with a focus on Conservation and Natural Resources.

MICAH MOSLEY, ADMISSIONS SPECIALIST

Micah served 21 years in the U.S. Army. Micah's service was very diverse, working on various pieces of equipment ranging from Light, Heavy, Track Vehicles, Generators, and Satellite Communication equipment while serving in CONUS assignments. In April 2008 he re-classed to become a Career Counselor (79S) and Deployed to OEF 08-09 to Jalalabad, Afghanistan where he assisted in the development and direction of command retention programs. Micah also served in South Korea at Camp Casey as a Senior Career Counselor for 210th Fires Brigade from 2013-2014. Micah's most rewarding part of his military career was mentoring and guiding Soldiers to make a better life for themselves and their families while maintaining Force Alignment. He believes that he is continuing that path by assisting transitioning Soldiers in the Career

Skills Program from the Military to the Civilian workforce in his new position with Airstreams Renewables Inc. In his spare time, Micah enjoys spending time with his family, fishing, and traveling.
