Faculty

Our training instructors come from all over the world with unsurpassed years of combined expertise, experience, a profound respect for safety in the workplace, and a real passion to make your training experience a "career enhancing" one. Meet our High Desert team:

LENA SPALTY, TRAINING SUPERVISOR

Lena joined ARI in 2017 and in her new role as Training Supervisor she is excited to be a part of the Career Skills Program (CSP) on Fort Irwin to continue serving in a leadership role assisting transitioning service members on their way to new career opportunities. As prior service Army, she understands the importance of having strong support team, while making the transition from service member to civilian life.

MICHAEL DEGROOD, TRAINING SPECIALIST

Mike was a factory trained automobile technician for Ford, GM and other companies for 23 years before turning his career path towards the wind business. He was able to use his skills to build and trouble shoot wind turbines for Enron Wind, which later became G.E. Wind Energy. He worked with GE to ramp up their assembly plant in Pensacola FL, as well as trained people in the field how to repair the 1.5 series wind turbines. He wrote the gearbox and mainshaft replacement procedures for the field technicians. He was the test team leader at the assembly plant in Tehachapi, insuring that all the turbines, hubs and DTA's were functioning properly before being shipped to the various sites across the country. He spent 15 years in the wind business before joining the team at Airstreams.

STEVEN RECTOR, TRAINING SPECIALIST

Steven joined the Airstreams Renewables, Inc. family upon graduation, as a student, on May 8th, 2015. He spent the next three years of his career working with multiple companies as a Wind Turbine Technician. In winter of 2018 he decided to shift his career towards helping transitioning active duty soldiers by becoming an instructor at the highly regarded vocational school that helped jump start his own career, Airstreams Renewable, Inc.
